

A taste of things to come?

Easter activities at the Anchor Inn brought chaos to the streets of Nayland on a blind bend

on the brow of a bridge on adjacent green space on roadside verges

through traffic moved cautiously avoiding pedestrians forced onto the road parked any which way they could - little room for walkers, or ducks, in this Buntingland experience

